Mrs. Bela Fabian

Mrs. Ilona Schwartz Fabian, 62, wife of Dr. Bela Fabian, chairman of the Federation of Hungarian Former Political Prisoners, died of lung cancer yesterday at Flower-Fifth Ave. Hospital.

Mrs. Fabian, who lived at 131 Riverside Dr., served in the underground during the Nazi occupation of Hungary. She was president of the women's section of the Jewish War Veterans of Hungary at the start of the war and aided many hundreds of forced laborers.

Her husband, former president of the Independent Democratic party and a member of the Hungarian parliament, was arrested by the Nazis and was in four concentration camps until American troops liberated him in March, 1945. She was allowed to join him in Paris in 1947, and they came to the United States the next year. They were married in January, 1924.

A sister also survives.
